Coordinator of Couples & Family Services

Busy psychologist's office seeks a full-time therapist with an interest in working with couples. Significant training and experience with culturally responsive interventions is a must. Candidates with an interest in Womanist theory and African-centered Psychology are particularly encouraged to apply. Exceptional interpersonal and presentation skills are required. The successful candidate has the ability to work evenings and occasional weekends, can balance multiple tasks, and is a self starter. Duties include, but are not limited to:

Duties & Responsibilities

- Primarily working with couples, families, and children (80-90% of case load).
- Coordination of programming and initiatives designed to build strong couples, families, and parenting bonds.
- Engage in significant marketing and community outreach (weekly).
- Maintaining relationships with appropriate referral sources.
- Conduct initial intake assessments and provide referrals when appropriate.
- Phone intake, client-care, and scheduling.
- Daily documentation of clinical records.
- Develop psycho-educational groups and weekend couples retreats.
- Clinical consultation with allied health professionals.
- Administrative duties consistent with job duties.

Qualities Required

The ideal candidate must be fully licensed (psychologist, LPC, LCSW) with 2-3 years of post licensure experience. Candidates must be willing to accept insurance. Skill providing therapy to culturally and economically diverse clients is required. A background in marketing, sales, or outreach is a plus. Candidate must be proactive, goal oriented, and personable. The ability to work independently, multi-task, and be comfortable in a rapidly developing environment is vital to this position. Personal attributes desired include being well-spoken, punctual, goal-oriented, and reliable.

Compensation: The contract position is compensated based on a percentage of billable hours. Additional benefits can include access to a full benefits package and eligibility for student loan repayment.
